Hello M G,

This email is your receipt of your assessment with Acquia Inc. We suggest you print this page for your records.

You are registered for the following assessment(s) for your login of: iyyappan@unimity.com

PROCTORED TESTS

In order to complete your assessment(s), go to the Kryterion Testing Network (KTN) Location up to 15 minutes early, and provide the proctor with the Test Taker Authorization Code listed below. Please note: You must bring your Test Taker Authorization Code or the proctor will not be able to load your assessment.

When taking an exam at a testing center please arrive up to 15 minutes early, and provide the proctor with the Test Taker Authorization Code. You will be required to provide the Exam Proctor two (2) forms of identification (one must be a photo Government issued ID). Secondary identification would be a credit card, bank debit card, employee identification card.

NOTE: In the United States a Social Security card is "not" an acceptable form of identification

No Shows and Cancellations: I understand I can reschedule my test session appointment with "more" than 72 hours notice without penalty. I understand I cannot reschedule or cancel my scheduled test session appointment with "less" than seventy-two (72) hours notice and would require contacting your test sponsor.

I understand that if I do reschedule or cancel my registration with less than 72 hours notice, I may be required to pay an additional fee.

Important note: If you should miss your exam appointment, Acquia Certification will not re-issue an exam, or refund the missed exam. Should you miss your exam appointment you will be required by Acquia certification to re-register at full cost.

Please print this email reminder and bring to the test center for presentation to the Kryterion Proctor
